

Coming Back

G                    Em            C                    D
I'm coming back, I'm running back to You

G                    Em            C                    D
I'm coming back, You make me not so blue

G                    Em            C                    D
I'm coming back, I'm leaving my sins behind

G                    Em            C            D                    G
I'm coming back, I'm taking the bread and the wine

C                    D            Em
Thank you Lord Jesus for dying for me

C            D                    G
Taking the punishment I deserved

C            D            Em
I turn and I say "I repent of my sin"

C            G                    D
I claim the prize You have reserved

C    D            Em
I really do not deserve all this

C            D            G
The King of all blessing me

C    D            Em
For I have hurt far too many people

C            G                    D
Yet You forgive and let it be
