

All For You

I could write a thousand words
Telling of you glory
I could sing a thousand songs
Of everything you've done
But without you it's just
An empty chord, a muffled drumbeat
I'm marching out of time sometimes
I'm chanting out of rhythm,
Singing out of rhyme

It's all for you, it's all for you, it's all for you
It's all for you, it's all for you, it's all for you

It's the simplicity of you gentle generosity
Your love and mercy
That keeps me going when I fall
When I'm slowing to a crawl
You pick me up, set me on my own two feet
By the grace of God, I am free
In the grace of God I am free

King of Kings and Lord of Lords
My offering is simple chords
And every blessing that you pour on me
I'll bring, yes I'll sing to my God of gods

It's all for you, it's all for you, it's all for you
It's all for you, it's all for you, it's all for you

When everything has crumbled
And my pride is broken
And I'm left feeling like a fool
You arrive by candlelight
In the quiet of the night
And you take me by the hand
And smile and say:
"It's getting better,
It's getting better,
It's getting better,
It's getting better,
There's a light that shines and it's all for you,
It's all for you,"

It's all for you, it's all for you, it's all for you
It's all for you, it's all for you, it's all for you
