

Child

*Child, you are my child
You are my daughter, you are my son
You are my friend, my dependent who's depended on
My tapestry, my masterpiece, my singer and my song
Child, you are my child*

You are my hands, you are my feet
I breathe through you, you breathe through me
And every night I send the moonlight to caress your face to sleep
And every day the sun is raised and I smile when I see you awake
You make me laugh, you make me cry
You make my day, you make it all worthwhile

My tapestry, my masterpiece, my singer and my song
You are my daughter, are my son
My dependent who's depended on

I'd like to spend eternity in your presence, come with me
I'd like to show you the stars from on top of the world
I'd like to spend every day with you
I'd like to feel that you love me too
I've made a promise never to let you go, I'll never let you down
And everything I've ever done was done for you
Because you are

My tapestry, my masterpiece, my singer and my song
You are my daughter, are my son
My dependent who's depended on
My children, my companions
The body of the Son
You are my laughter, are my lovers
Royal blood that flows as one

Child, you are my child
