

Will It Be

What will it be when we see Jesus face to face?
What will we see when we're finished in this race?
What will I feel when I kneel before the One
Before the Son
In his glory and his grace?

*I wanna rise, I wanna race
Lift up the skies with our prayers and our praise
I wanna find your peace of mind
I wanna live this life you've made
I wanna show the world that Jesus is the way
I wanna see the smile on your face*

I want to see the colour of eternity
I want to smell the scent of your love for me
I want to feel time stretched out in your hand
I want to understand

*I wanna rise, I wanna race
Lift up the skies with our prayers and our praise
I wanna find your peace of mind
I wanna live this life you've made
I wanna show the world that Jesus is the way
I wanna see the smile on your face*

*Will I stand, will I fall,
Will your eyes capture my all?
You're my fix, you're my need
You're the heartbeat in me x2*

*I wanna rise, I wanna race
Lift up the skies with our prayers and our praise
I wanna find your peace of mind
I wanna live this life you've made
I wanna show the world that Jesus is the way
I wanna see the smile on your face*
